

Grace is an artist living in Sheffield. She was born in Birmingham, in England.

Grace has made this art exhibition. It is called 'Going Up in the World'.

Grace likes making sculptures using objects that people will know, like mugs or cans.

Grace is interested in people from different backgrounds, including rich and poor.

She explores how and why we use labels like 'working class', 'middle class', and 'upper class' to describe people.

Her artwork is also inspired by her life growing up in Birmingham.

The Art House

You can see the exhibition in three places: The Art House, outside Wakefield Pie Shop, and inside the Black Rock Pub from 27 July to 8 September 2022.
